

Analyze the images the writers of
National Women's History Museum used in the following pages from
AMERICAN WOMEN IN THE OLYMPICS.

- Why might each image have been chosen?
- Compare the image in the site to the one which was copied from the internet.
  - Is there a difference? If so, why?
  - How does the reader now where to locate the original images?
  - How do users of the internet document ALL sources they use?
  - Why is it so important to document carefully and consistently?
  - Define plagiarism.

Analyze the images the writers of
National Women's History Museum used in the
following pages from
AMERICAN WOMEN IN THE OLYMPICS.

- Why might each image have been chosen?
- Compare the image in the site to the one which was copied from the internet.
  - Is there a difference? If so, why?
  - How does the reader now where to locate the original images?
  - How do users of the internet document ALL sources they use?
  - Why is it so important to document carefully and consistently?
  - Define plagiarism.